The Crime Victim Compensation Commission was established on July 1, 1967 and is governed by Chapter 351, Hawai‘i Revised Statutes. The Commission helps victims with crime-related costs. Funding sources include fees from offenders, inmate wages, federal grant funds, and reimbursement from restitution payments.

Who can get help?
You can get help if you were involved in a covered crime* that occurred in the jurisdiction of Hawai‘i and you are:

- A victim who suffered injury.
- A person responsible for the maintenance of the victim who has suffered monetary loss because of the victim’s death or injury.
- A person engaged in business or educational activity at the scene of a mass casualty (mental health counseling expenses only).
- A relative of a deceased victim who has incurred medical or funeral expenses as the result of the victim’s death or injury.
- A dependent of a deceased victim.
- A Hawai‘i resident who is a victim of an act of international terrorism.

*Covered Crimes

- Murder
- Manslaughter
- Negligent Homicide I and II
- Negligent Injury I and II
- Assault I – III
- Sexual Assault I – IV
- Kidnapping
- Abuse of Family and Household Member
- International Terrorism

If I am eligible, what benefits do I get?
You may receive compensation for:

- Medical and mental health counseling expenses that are not covered by other sources.
- Lost earnings or support that is not covered by other sources.
- Funeral and burial expenses that are not covered by other sources.
- Acknowledgement award for victims only. Acknowledgement awards are symbolic in nature and are awarded to acknowledge a victim’s suffering, rather than to compensate for that suffering. Such awards are not intended to quantify physical/emotional losses suffered as a result of the crime and are based on the facts and circumstances of the crime and the severity of the criminal offense. The maximum acknowledgement award is $400, subject to change at any time, based on the availability of funding.
- Pecuniary loss directly resulting from the injury or death of the victim.
- Property damage (“Good Samaritans” only).

No compensation will be awarded for lost property, telephone bills, copying costs, meals, parking, fees for late charges or filing fees.

The Commission is a payor of last resort. The Commission may pay compensation only after all other sources have been exhausted. An award may be reduced by amounts received from Workers’ Compensation, Motor Vehicle Insurance, Civil Suits, Temporary Disability Insurance or Restitution from the offender. You must file timely claims with Workers’ Compensation, Motor Vehicle Insurance, Temporary Disability Insurance and your medical insurance carrier. You must reimburse the Commission if you receive money from these sources.
How do I apply?
- You must report the crime to law enforcement officials (police, naval investigative service, military police or Federal Bureau of Investigation) without undue delay.
- You must file an application with the Commission within 18 months of the crime date. Late applications will be accepted upon a showing of good cause.

You are responsible for….
1. Completely filling out and submitting the following:
   - A signed Application Form (Form #1).
   - A signed Authorization to Release Medical/Mental Health Treatment Information Form for each treatment provider (Form #2).
   - Proof to substantiate your claim (bills, receipts, insurance statements, and medical records).
2. If you are making a claim for lost wages:
   - Completely filling out and signing the Authorization to Release Employment Information Form and submitting it to your employer (Form #3).
   - Submitting proof to substantiate your claim for lost wages (pay stubs, Income Tax returns if self-employed, and a medical disability certificate) to the Commission.
3. If you were assaulted in a Motor Vehicle or injured as the result of a Motor Vehicle collision:
   - Contact your No-Fault Insurance provider and request that they cover your crime-related expenses.

What to expect from the Commission
- The Commission will attempt to secure law enforcement reports. This may take up to 2 months.
- You will receive a written decision and order either awarding compensation or denying your application.
